

HB 2268 - DIGEST

Allows an ignition interlock device vendor to authorize and provide a temporary bypass mechanism to allow the restricted person or another person to remove the lockout condition for up to seventy-two hours in order for the vehicle to be transported for service.