

HB 2316 - DIGEST

Changes the name of the "e-recording standards commission" to the "recording standards commission."

States that the intent of the legislature is that the secretary of state have the authority to create regulations for consistent recording of documents by county auditors.