

HB 2347 - DIGEST

Updates the requirements of the integrated resource planning process to inform lawmakers and the public about the long-term strategies of the state's electric utilities, such as the costs, risks, and benefits of deep decarbonization for the utility that serves them.