

HB 2650 - DIGEST

Requires the department of children, youth, and families to oversee the provision of early intervention services: (1) To eligible children with disabilities from birth to three years of age; and

(2) In partnership with local birth-to-three lead agencies and birth-to-three services providers.