

HB 2662 - DIGEST

Authorizes a public utility district that provides only water, sewer, and telecommunications services, in a county with an area less than five hundred square miles, to provide end user telecommunications services.