

HB 2706 - DIGEST

Exempts the following from the traffic infraction of using a personal electronic device while driving a motor vehicle on a public highway: A person operating a tow truck, to the extent that person is using the telephone call functionality of a wireless communications device.