

HB 2897 - DIGEST

(SEE ALSO PROPOSED 1ST SUB)

Finds that legislative clarity is important for consumer-owned utilities to offer incentive programs and services in the electrification of transportation for its customers.

Declares an intent to achieve parity among electric utilities, so each utility, depending on its unique circumstances, can determine its appropriate role in the development of electrification of transportation infrastructure.