

HB 2996 - DIGEST

Modifies the state civil rights act to address civil actions alleging a violation of the right to be free from discrimination because of the presence of a sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability.