

HB 2999 - DIGEST

Requires the secretary of state to: (1) Consult with the attorney general, the state chief information security officer, county auditors, or other designated local election officials to identify instances of security breaches of election systems or election data; and

(2) To the extent possible, identify whether the source of a security breach, if any, is a foreign entity and/or domestic entity.