6 Reletter the remaining subsections consecutively and correct any
7 internal references accordingly.

EFFECT: Provides that funds for the reimbursement project must be distributed in a manner that prioritizes small farming operations, rather than first-come-first-served, and subject to appropriation. Specifies that reimbursement applications may not be filed until July 1 after the fiscal year for which reimbursement is sought. Authorizes local governments to enter into collective purchasing agreements to buy back compost if doing so is more efficient and effective.
