

SENATE BILL REPORT

SB 5504

---

As of February 20, 2019

Title: An act relating to state agency employee access to peer-reviewed journals.

Brief Description: Concerning state agency employee access to peer-reviewed journals.

Sponsors: Senators Warnick, Sheldon, Hasegawa, Hunt, Zeiger, Takko, Wagoner, Hawkins, Honeyford, Carlyle, Keiser and Wilson, L..

Brief History:

Committee Activity: State Government, Tribal Relations & Elections: 2/20/19.

Brief Summary of Bill

- Directs the Washington State Institute for Public Policy to conduct a study for electronic access to peer-reviewed journals by relevant state employees and report its findings to the Legislature.
- Appropriates up to $200,000 to conduct the study.

---

SENATE COMMITTEE ON STATE GOVERNMENT, TRIBAL RELATIONS & ELECTIONS

Staff: Melissa Van Gorkom (786-7491)

Background: In a number of scientific fields, academics and professionals rely on articles published in peer-reviewed journals for their research. Before publication in a peer-reviewed journal, articles must be reviewed by experts in the field who may suggest revisions to an article before it is published. An article is rejected from publication if it lacks scholarly validity and rigor.

Access to peer-reviewed journals often requires purchasing a subscription or paying an access fee, although specific articles may sometimes be purchased individually. College and university libraries generally subscribe to relevant journals for their students or others with library accounts. The Washington State Library statewide database licensing project also includes a research library with some magazines, periodicals, and scholarly journals.

---

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

Washington State Institute for Public Policy. The Washington State Institute for Public Policy (WSIPP) was created by the Legislature in 1983 as a nonpartisan organization to carry out research at the direction of the Legislature or the WSIPP Board of Directors (Board). The Board is comprised of 16 members representing the Legislature, the Executive Branch, and the academic community. Fiscal and administrative services for WSIPP are provided by The Evergreen State College.

Summary of Bill: WSIPP must conduct a study that addresses, at a minimum, potential funding, organizational structure, and policy mechanisms that would provide relevant state employees with comprehensive electronic access to peer-reviewed journals. The study must be completed and submitted to the Legislature by December 1, 2020.

Appropriation: The bill contains an appropriation totaling $200,000 from the general fund for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2020.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Creates Committee/Commission/Task Force that includes Legislative members: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: There are agencies that must look at these resources and we need to get up to speed in how to do this in an electronic manner. Health impact reviews require access to this peer review literature and could not be done without this information. Having agencies use good science to made decisions results in good policy. This issue is not simple and is complicated by subscription issues and other licensing agreements among the various entities. This bill would allow for the review of these barriers and is a critical first step to determine the best way to move forward to provide better access to this resources in the state. This bill will allow the state to save money through the use of bulk purchasing.

Persons Testifying: PRO: Senator Judy Warnick, Prime Sponsor; Gareth Waugh, Port Blakely; Jay Jennings, Office of the Secretary of State; Christy Hoff, State Board of Health.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: No one.