

HB 1682 - DIGEST

Authorizes a self-insured employer, in the event the department of labor and industries has made an order communicating the closure of his or her claim, to serve the department order using a secure, verifiable nonelectronic means of delivery that includes a notice explaining the contents of the order and protest or appeal rights.