

SB 5560 - DIGEST

Requires a party bringing a claim to first notify the other parties to the claim in writing, before a lawsuit may be commenced in disputes between elected officials, in their official capacity.

Defines an "elected official" as: (1) An elected or appointed county officer;

(2) Equivalent positions whether elected or appointed in charter counties; and

(3) Superior, district, and municipal court judges located within the county.