

SB 5638 - DIGEST

Encourages the development of distributed ledger technology, which is defined as any distributed ledger protocol and supporting infrastructure, including blockchain, that uses a distributed, decentralized, shared, and replicated ledger.

Prohibits an electronic record or signature from being denied legal effect, validity, or enforceability solely because it is generated, communicated, received, or stored using distributed ledger technology.