By Representative Hansen

ADOPTED 02/27/2023

1        On page 2, beginning on line 14, after "Sec. 4." strike all
2 material through "record" on line 17 and insert "Within 30 days of 3 each burial in a family burial ground, the owner of the property on 4 which the family burial ground is located shall report the burial to 5 the Washington state department of archaeology and historic 6 preservation and record the burial with the county auditor of the 7 county in which the property is situated. The owner shall report to 8 the department and record with the county auditor"
9
10

EFFECT: Requires the owner of the property on which a family burial ground is located to report each burial to the Washington State Department of Archaeology and Historic Preservation (DAHP), in addition to recording each burial with the county auditor. Requires the property owner to provide to the DAHP the same information about the deceased person and the location of the grave as must be provided when recording a burial with the county auditor.
