1 WHEREAS, We welcome to the House of Representatives the children
2 here today, including middle and high school students serving as 3 pages, and we hope their experience here inspires them to stay 4 informed and involved in their democracy; and

5 WHEREAS, In the State of Washington, children are cherished, as 6 they are the future of our great state; and

7 WHEREAS, All the children in the state should have access to 8 quality education, recreation, and a safe community; and

9 WHEREAS, The children of the State of Washington can serve as an 10 example for us, as they are exposed from birth to various languages, 11 people, and places, embracing those new experiences with a smile and 12 open arms; and

13 WHEREAS, Adults can learn from children to be full of 14 aspirational dreams and hopeful thinking as we legislate; and

15 WHEREAS, It is our solemn obligation to instill in children the 16 values, convictions, goodwill, and fortitude they need to continue 17 the legacy of freedom, peace, and prosperity we have inherited from 18 those who came before us;

19 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives 20 encourage all citizens of Washington to celebrate Children's Day and

1 to inspire youth to chart their own hopes and dreams while they 2 create the future of Washington state.
