1 WHEREAS, On this day, we join citizens across the nation in 2 observing Presidents' Day, a time set aside to reflect on the 3 leadership and service of those who have served as President of the 4 United States; and

5 WHEREAS, Presidents' Day has long served as a moment for honoring 6 the achievements and enduring legacies of pivotal American leaders, 7 particularly George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, whose 8 contributions shaped the course of our nation's history; and

9 WHEREAS, George Washington, the first President of our United 10 States, was instrumental in leading the country through the 11 challenges of the Revolutionary War and the early years of our 12 independence; and

13 WHEREAS, By voluntarily stepping down at the end of his second
14 term, George Washington set a crucial precedent for peaceful
15 transitions of power, a practice that has since become a cornerstone 16 of American democracy; and

17 WHEREAS, Abraham Lincoln, the sixteenth President, is revered for 18 his steadfast leadership during the Civil War, preserving the Union 19 and writing the Emancipation Proclamation to end slavery; and

20 WHEREAS, The significance of Presidents' Day is a celebration not 21 only of these two extraordinary figures, but of all presidents who 22 have shaped the country in their unique ways—each bringing their 23 unique vision, determination, and dedication to the office; and

1 WHEREAS, The establishment of Presidents' Day as a national 2 observance highlights our nation's commitment to democratic ideals in 3 the continued pursuit of a more perfect Union;

4 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives
5 honor our nation's presidents for leaving a legacy of renowned 6 leadership in turbulent times and their immeasurable contributions to 7 the furtherment of liberty, equality, and justice in this country.
