

RCW 50.29.065 Notice of benefits paid and charged to employer's account. Within thirty days after the end of every calendar quarter, the commissioner shall notify each employer of the benefits received during that quarter by each claimant for whom he or she is the base year employer and the amount of those benefits charged to his or her experience rating account. [1984 c 205 § 10.]

Conflict with federal requirements—Severability—Effective dates
—1984 c 205: See notes following RCW 50.20.120.