

RCW 71.05.575 Less restrictive alternative treatment—

Consideration by court. (1) When making a decision under this chapter whether to require a less restrictive alternative treatment, the court shall consider whether it is appropriate to include or exclude time spent in confinement when determining whether the person has committed a recent overt act.

(2) When determining whether an offender is a danger to himself or herself or others under this chapter, a court shall give great weight to any evidence submitted to the court regarding an offender's recent history of judicially required or administratively ordered involuntary antipsychotic medication while in confinement. [1999 c 214 § 6.]

Intent—Effective date—1999 c 214: See notes following RCW 72.09.370.
