

RCW 71.32.210 Execution of directive not evidence of behavioral health disorder or lack of capacity. The fact that a person has executed a directive does not constitute an indication of behavioral health disorder or that the person is not capable of providing informed consent. [2021 c 287 § 16; 2003 c 283 § 21.]