- RCW 49.85.045 Employee cause of action—Remedies—Notice of violation. (1) An aggrieved employee or an employee representative, such as a collective bargaining representative or nonprofit corporation, may bring an action in the superior court of the state of Washington for violations of this chapter and may be awarded the following:
- (a) Hiring and reinstatement rights pursuant to this chapter. For violations of the retention provision, the 180-day transition employment period does not commence until the eligible grocery worker's employment commencement date with the successor grocery employer;
- (b) Front pay or back pay for each day during which the violation continues;
- (c) The value of the benefits the employee would have received under any benefit plans;
- (d) Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to any employee or employee representative who prevails in an enforcement action.
- (2) Before an employee or an employee representative brings an action in the superior court of the state of Washington for a violation of this chapter, both of the following requirements must be met:
- (a) The employee has provided written notice to the employer of the provisions of this chapter alleged to have been violated and the facts to support the alleged violation; and
- (b) The employer has not cured the alleged violation within 30 calendar days from receipt of the written notice. [2024 c 129 s 8.]
