WAC 390-17-400 Time limit to solicit or accept contributions. For purposes of complying with RCW 42.17.710:

(2) "Legislative caucus" means the caucus of members of a major political party in the state house of representatives or in the state senate.

(3) "Legislative session freeze period" means the period of time in RCW 42.17.710 within which contributions shall not be solicited or accepted by a state official or a person employed by or acting on behalf of a state official.

(a) The freeze period begins at 12:01 a.m. on the thirtieth day before the start of the regular legislative session and ends at 11:59 p.m. on the thirtieth day following adjournment of the regular legislative session.

(b) If a special session is held immediately following the end of the regular legislative session, this period ends on the day the special session adjourns or at 11:59 p.m. on the thirtieth day following adjournment of the regular legislative session, whichever is later.

(c) If a special session is held other than within 30 days before or after a regular legislative session, the freeze period begins at 12:01 a.m. on the first day of the special session and ends at 11:59 p.m. on the final day of the special session.

(8) During the legislative session freeze period, no person shall solicit or accept contributions on behalf of or for the benefit of a state official for the purpose of retiring a campaign debt of the state official or raising funds for a state official's future election to a nonfederal public office.

(9) During the legislative session freeze period, a bona fide political party shall not solicit or accept contributions on behalf of or for the benefit of a state official for the purpose of retiring a campaign debt of the state official or raising funds for a state official's future election to a nonfederal public office. However, a bona fide political party may solicit or accept contributions for its own fundraising purposes.

(10) During the legislative session freeze period, a state official may sponsor, speak at or attend a fundraising event held by or on behalf of a bona fide political party as long as no contributions raised in conjunction with the event are earmarked or otherwise designated for one or more candidates for nonfederal office.

(11) During the legislative session freeze period, no person shall solicit or accept contributions to a caucus political committee or any other political committee financed, controlled or operated by the legislative caucus as a whole or the officers of the caucus political committee, unless the purpose of the other political committee is to support or oppose a ballot measure.

Reviser's note: Notice of Objection: The Joint Administrative Rules Review Committee finds that WAC 390-20-110 has not been modified, amended, withdrawn, or repealed by the Public Disclosure Commission so as to conform with the intent of the Legislature as expressed in RCW 42.17.170 and 42.17.180. Therefore, pursuant to its authority under RCW 34.04.240, this notice of objection is filed.

The Joint Committee finds that WAC 390-20-110 requires the disclosure of information from lobbyists' employers which RCW 42.17.170 specifically excludes from reporting by lobbyists. It is the opinion of the Joint Committee that the Commission is attempting to obtain information from lobbyists' employers which the Commission would not otherwise be able to obtain from lobbyists themselves. This would thwart the express intent of the Legislature that such information is inappropriate for reporting. WAC 390-20-110 would effectively neuter the reporting exemptions in RCW 42.17.170--the Commission would have the information. This is not what the Legislature intended.
