

tent of arguments or statements and shall not edit the content of statements or arguments:

(1) The secretary may correct obvious errors in grammar, spelling or punctuation;

(2) The secretary shall promptly attempt to notify any candidate or committee, by any means the secretary deems reasonable under the circumstances, if a statement or argument exceeds the maximum number of words. If the candidate or committee does not provide the secretary with a revised statement or argument that does not exceed the limit within three business days after the deadline for submission of the statement or argument, then the secretary shall modify the statement to fit the limit by removing words or sentences, starting at the end, until the maximum word limit is reached. More words than necessary to achieve the maximum word limit may be removed by the secretary so that the statement or argument ends in a complete sentence;

(3) The secretary shall notify any committee that submits a title or identification for their members that does not conform to WAC 434-381-160(2). If the committee does not provide the secretary with a revised title that meets the requirements established in WAC 434-381-160(2) within three business days, the secretary shall publish the name without any title or identification;

(4) Prior to publishing the pamphlet the secretary shall make a reasonable effort to provide a proof copy to the candidate or committee as it will appear showing any changes to the statement or argument; and

(5) After submission of the statement or argument to the secretary, candidates or committees may only correct obvious errors or inaccuracies discovered in their own proof copy. Changes in content are not allowed.

WAC 434-381-190 Prevention of art work, photographs or other material by candidate. (1) The secretary shall be prohibited from using the art work, photography, or other materials provided by candidates for public office in the voters pamphlet in which the candidate's name appears, except that required by law or rule for the candidate's statements or, information provided by the office that publishes the pamphlet;

(2) Prior to final printing of the voters pamphlet a responsible employee of the office of the secretary of state will review complete "camera ready" copies of each edition of the voters pamphlet;

(3) Language shall be placed into contracts, with the office of the secretary of state to produce the voters pamphlet, to certify that those providing content materials for the voters pamphlet are not candidates for public office and those individuals will not run for public office while their materials are being used in a state or local pamphlet produced in conjunction with the state voters pamphlet.

Title 446 WAC

STATE PATROL

Chapters

446-16

Washington state identification section.

Chapter 446-16 WAC

WAC

446-16-030

Inspection by the subject of their record.

WAC 446-16-030 Inspection by the subject of their record. (1) Any person desiring to inspect criminal history record information which refers to themselves may do so at the central office of the Washington state patrol identification and criminal history section, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, excepting legal holidays.

(2) Any person desiring to inspect criminal history record information pertaining to themselves shall first permit their fingerprints to be taken by the section for identification purposes if requested to do so. The section, in their discretion, may accept other identification in lieu of fingerprints.

(3) A reasonable period of time, not to exceed thirty minutes, shall be allowed each individual to examine criminal history record information pertaining to themselves.

(4) No person shall be allowed to retain or reproduce any criminal history record information pertaining to themselves except for the purpose of challenge or correction of entries of arrests by submitting law enforcement agencies of the state of Washington. Visual examination only shall be permitted of such information unless the individual asserts their belief that criminal history record information from a submitting law enforcement agency of the state of Washington concerning them is inaccurate, incomplete or maintained in violation of the law; and unless they request correction or completion of the information on a form furnished by the section, or requests expungement pursuant to WAC 446-16-025.

(5) If any person who desires to examine criminal history record information pertaining to themselves is unable to read or is otherwise unable to examine same because of a physical disability, they may designate another person of their own choice to assist them. The person about whom the information pertains shall execute, with their mark, a form provided by the section consenting to the inspection of criminal history record information pertaining to themselves by another person for the purpose of it being read or otherwise described to them. Such designated person shall then be permitted to read or otherwise describe or translate the criminal history record information to the person about whom it pertains.
