(2) The responsibilities of the department of social and health services (DSHS) include, but are not limited to, service delivery for the working connections child care (WCCC) program, including determining who is eligible for WCCC benefits, authorizing payments, and managing payments made to providers that receive WCCC subsidies.

(3) This allocation between DEL and DSHS is pursuant to section 501(2), chapter 265, Laws of 2006 (2SHB 2964), in which the legislature transferred all of the powers, duties, and functions relating to the WCCC program from DSHS to DEL, except for eligibility staffing and eligibility payment functions, which remain in DSHS.

WAC 170-290-0012 Verifying consumers' information. (1) A consumer must provide information to DSHS to determine eligibility when:

(a) The consumer initially applies for benefits;

(b) The consumer reapplies for benefits;

(c) A change of circumstances occurs, which is either reported by the consumer or determined by DSHS;

(d) DSHS finds out that the consumer's circumstances may have changed; or

(2) DSHS may accept any verification that the consumer can easily obtain when it reasonably supports the consumer's statement or circumstances. The verification that the consumer gives to DSHS must:

(a) Clearly relate to the information DSHS is requesting;

(b) Be from a reliable source; and

(c) Be accurate, complete, and consistent.

(3) If DSHS requires verification from a consumer that costs money, DSHS must pay for the consumer's reasonable costs.

(4) If the verification that a consumer provides to DSHS is inconsistent, conflicting, or outdated, DSHS may:

(a) Ask the consumer to provide DSHS with more verification or provide a collateral contact (a "collateral contact" is a statement from someone outside of the consumer's residence that knows the consumer's situation); or

(b) Send an investigator from the division of fraud investigations (DFI) to make an unannounced visit to the consumer's home to verify the consumer's circumstances. See WAC 170-290-0025(9).

(5) If a consumer does not provide all of the verification requested, DSHS will determine if a consumer is eligible based on the information already available to DSHS.

WAC 170-290-0025 Consumers' rights. When a consumer applies for or receives WCCC benefits, the consumer has the right to:

(1) Be free from discrimination in accordance with all applicable federal and state nondiscrimination laws, regulations, and policies;

(3) Be informed, in writing, of his or her legal rights and responsibilities related to WCCC benefits;

(4) Receive a written notice at least ten days before DSHS makes changes to lower or stop benefits except as stated in WAC 170-290-0120;

(5) Ask for an administrative hearing if he or she does not agree with DSHS about a decision per WAC 170-290-0280;

(6) Ask a supervisor or administrator to review a decision or action affecting the consumer's benefits without affecting the right to an administrative hearing;

(7) Have an interpreter or translator service provided by DSHS within a reasonable amount of time and at no cost to the consumer;

(8) Choose a provider as long as the provider meets the requirements in WAC 170-290-0125;

(9) Ask the fraud early detection (FRED) investigator from the division of fraud investigations (DFI) to come back at another time. A consumer does not have to let an investigator into his or her home. This request will not affect the consumer's eligibility for benefits. If the consumer refuses to cooperate (provide the information requested) with the investigator, it could affect his or her benefits;

(10) Access his or her child at all times while the child is in child care;

(11) Terminate child care without cause and without notice to the provider. Notice must be given to DSHS within five days of termination;

(12) Not be charged by the consumer's licensed or certified provider, or be made to pay for:

(b) Any day when the consumer's child is absent;

(c) Vacation days when the provider chooses to close;

(d) A higher amount than the state allows for field trips.

If the consumer requests, and the provider has a policy in place, the consumer may voluntarily pay the difference between the amount that the state allows and the actual field trip cost;

(e) A preschool tuition fee in addition to regular child care services; or

(f) Child care services after the final day of care, when the provider chooses to stop caring for the consumer's children.

WAC 170-290-0030 Consumers' responsibilities.

When a consumer applies for or receives WCCC benefits, the consumer must:

(1) Give DSHS correct and current information so DSHS can determine eligibility and authorize child care payments correctly;

(2) Choose a provider who meets requirements of WAC 170-290-0125;

(3) Pay, or make a plan to have someone pay, the WCCC copayment directly to the child care provider;

(4) Only use WCCC benefits while the consumer is in WCCC approved activities. If the consumer is not in an approved activity and wants to use the provider, he or she must make a plan to pay the provider if the provider wants payment. The provider may charge the consumer the same rate that the provider charges to other parents who are not in the WCCC program;

(5) Pay the provider the same late fees that are charged to other families, if the consumer pays a copayment late or picks up the child late;

(6) Ensure that care is provided in the correct home per WAC 170-290-130 if the consumer uses an in-home/relative provider, and monitor the in-home/relative provider's quality of care to ensure that the child's environmental, physical, nutritional, emotional, cognitive, safety, and social needs are being met;

(7) Cooperate (provide the information requested) with the quality assurance review process to remain eligible for WCCC. A consumer becomes ineligible for WCCC benefits upon a determination of noncooperation by quality assurance and remains ineligible until he or she meets quality assurance requirements. If DSHS determines that a consumer is not cooperating, the consumer will not be eligible for WCCC benefits. The consumer may become eligible again when he or she meets WCCC requirements in part II of this chapter;

(8) Provide the information requested by DSHS's WCCC staff or the fraud early detection (FRED) investigator. If the consumer refuses to provide the information requested within fourteen days, it could affect his or her benefits;

(9) Document the children's attendance as described in WAC 170-290-0138, 170-295-7030, 170-296-0520, or 170-151-460, as applicable, for that type of provider; and

(10) Provide to his or her in-home/relative provider the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of persons who are authorized to pick up the child from care.

WAC 170-290-0060 Countable income. DSHS counts income as money a consumer earns or receives from:

(1) A TANF grant, except when the grant is for the first three consecutive calendar months after the consumer starts a new job. The first calendar month is the month in which he or she starts working;

(2) Child support payments;

(3) Supplemental Security Income (SSI);

(4) Other Social Security payments, such as SSA and SSDI;

(5) Refugee assistance payments;

(6) Payments from the Veterans' Administration, disability payments, or payments from labor and industries (L&I);

(7) Unemployment compensation;

(8) Other types of income not listed in WAC 170-290-0070;

(9) VISTA volunteers, AmeriCorps, and Washington Service Corps (WSC) if the income is taxed;

(10) Gross wages from employment or self-employment. Gross wages includes any wages that are taxable. "Self-employment income" means a consumer's gross income from self-employment minus allowable business expenses in WAC 388-450-0085;

(11) Lump sums as money a consumer receives from a one-time payment such as back child support, an inheritance, or gambling winnings; and

(12) Income for the sale of property as follows:

(a) If a consumer sold the property before application, DSHS considers the proceeds an asset and does not count as income;

(b) If a consumer sold the property in the month he or she applies or during his or her eligibility period, DSHS counts it as a lump sum payment as described in WAC 170-290-0065(2);

(c) Property does not include small personal items such as furniture, clothes, and jewelry.

WAC 170-290-0065 Calculation of income. DSHS uses a consumer's countable income when determining his or her income eligibility and copayment. A consumer's countable income is the sum of all income listed in WAC 170-290-0060 minus any child support paid out (through a court order, division of child support administrative order, or tribal government order).

(1) To determine a consumer's income, DSHS:

(a) Determines the number of months, weeks or pay periods it took the consumer's WCCC household to earn the income and divide the income by the same number of months, weeks or pay periods to determine an average monthly amount; or

(b) Uses the best available estimate of the consumer's WCCC household's current income when he or she begins new employment, or if the consumer does not have an income history to make an accurate estimate of his or her future income, DSHS may ask the consumer's employer to verify his or her income.

(2) If a consumer receives a lump sum payment (such as money from the sale of property or back child support payment) in the month of application or during his or her WCCC eligibility:

(a) DSHS divides the lump sum payment by twelve to come up with a monthly amount;

(b) DSHS adds the monthly amount to the consumer's expected average monthly income for the month it was received and the remaining months of the current authorization period; and

(c) The consumer must meet income guidelines for WCCC after the lump sum payment is applied to remain eligible for WCCC.

(e) Diversion cash assistance;

(f) Income in-kind that is untaxed, such as working for rent;

(g) Military housing and food allowance;

(h) The TANF grant for the first three consecutive calendar months after the consumer starts a new job. The first calendar month is the month in which he or she starts working;

(i) Payments to the consumer from his or her employer for benefits such as medical plans;

(j) Earned income of a WCCC family member defined under WAC 170-290-0015(2);

(k) Income of consumers described in WAC 170-290-0005 (1)(c) through (i);

(l) Earned income from a minor child who DSHS counts as part of the consumer's WCCC household; and

(m) Benefits received by children of Vietnam War veterans who are diagnosed with any forms of manifestations of spina bifida except spina bifida occulta.

(2) WCCC deducts the amount a consumer pays for child support under court order, division of child support administrative order, or tribal government order, from the consumer's other countable income when figuring his or her eligibility and copayment for the WCCC program.

WAC 170-290-0075 Determining income eligibility and copayment amounts. (1) DSHS takes the following steps to determine a consumer's eligibility and copayment:

(3) A background check must be completed for individuals listed in subsection (2)(a) and (b) of this section at least every two years.

(4) Additional background checks must be completed for individuals listed in subsection (2)(a) and (b) of this section when:

(a) Any individual sixteen years of age or older is newly residing with a provider when the provider cares for the child in the provider's own home;

(b) DSHS has a valid reason to check more frequently;

(c) An in-home/relative provider applies to provide care for a family, such as when:

(i) A break in service occurs to the current consumer;

(ii) There is a break in consumer eligibility; or

(iii) A provider is currently providing care and there are no prior background results for this provider.

(5) DSHS does not need to request a new background check for an individual in subsection (2)(a) or (b) if:

(a) DSHS has results that were received no more than ninety days prior to the current requested start date of care; and

(b) The results indicate there is no record.

WAC 170-290-0145 In-home/relative providers—Background checks—Reasons and notification. (1) DSHS requires background checks to:

(a) Help safeguard the health, safety, and well-being of children;

(b) Reduce the possible risk of harm from persons who have been convicted or have charges pending of certain crimes having access to WCCC children; and

(c) Help consumers make informed decisions about individuals who have access to their children.

(2) DSHS notifies the WCCC consumer, after receiving the results of the background checks, if the consumer's chosen provider is an eligible provider under the WCCC rules.

(3) DSHS also notifies the consumer of the following results from the completed background checks:

(a) No background information is found given current sources of information;

(b) Background information is found, but the information will not disqualify the individual being checked; or

(c) Background information is found that disqualifies the individual being checked.

(2) The background information includes, at a minimum, criminal convictions and pending charges. Additional sources may include:

WAC 170-290-0155 In-home/relative providers—Background checks—Subsequent steps. After DSHS receives the background information, DSHS:

(1) Compares the background information with convictions of, or charges pending for crimes on the DEL director's list in WAC 170-06-0120;

(2) Reviews the background information using the following rules:

(a) DSHS gives the same weight to a pending charge for a crime as a conviction;

(b) If the conviction has been renamed, DSHS gives the same weight as the previous named conviction. For example, larceny is now called theft;

(c) DSHS gives convictions whose titles are preceded with the word "attempted" the same weight as those titles without the word "attempted"; and

(d) DSHS does not consider the crime a conviction for the purposes of WCCC when:

(i) It has been pardoned; or

(ii) A court of law acts to expunge, dismiss, or vacate the conviction record.

(3) Notifies the consumer whether or not the provider has been disqualified for WCCC;

(4) Allows the consumer to decide character and suitability of the provider when an individual is not automatically disqualified due to the background information from the record of arrests and prosecutions (RAP) sheet or other information available to DSHS; and

(5) Denies or stops payment when the background information disqualifies the individual being checked.

(2) If the conditions in WAC 170-290-0167 (1)(a) and (b) are met, the disqualifying background of an individual sixteen years of age or over living with the provider may not permanently disqualify the provider.

WAC 170-290-0165 In-home/relative providers—Background checks—Other disqualifying information.

(1) DSHS can disqualify a consumer's in-home/relative provider if the individual being checked has a background containing information other than conviction information that DSHS determines:

(a) Makes the individual not of suitable character and competence or of sufficient physical or mental health to meet the needs of the child in care; or

(b) Puts the consumer's child at risk for harm.

(2) If an individual being checked has a background containing a five-year disqualifying conviction for crimes on the DEL director's list in WAC 170-06-0120(2), the consumer's provider is disqualified as an in-home/relative provider for WCCC for five years after the conviction date.

(3) If an individual being checked has:

(a) A conviction listed in subsection (2) of this section, and it has been more than five years; or

(b) Any conviction other than those crimes on the DEL director's list in WAC 170-06-0120, DSHS allows the consumer to determine the provider's character, suitability, and competence by reviewing important information such as the:

(i) Amount of time that has passed since the conviction;

(ii) Seriousness of the crime that led to the conviction;

(iii) Individual's age at the time of conviction;

(iv) Individual's behavior since the conviction;

(v) Number and types of convictions in the individual's background; and

(vi) Individual's verification, if any, of successful completion of all court-ordered programs and restitution.

(4) If conditions in WAC 170-290-0167 (1)(a) and (b) are met, the disqualifying background of an individual sixteen years of age or over living with the provider may not disqualify the provider.

(1) If a consumer's in-home/relative provider is disqualified based only on the disqualifying background of a person living with the provider, then:

(a) Child care is allowed only in the child's home away from the disqualified individual, regardless of whether or not the provider meets the other qualifications listed in WAC 170-290-0130; and

(b) The consumer and provider sign an agreement with DSHS stating that:

(i) Care will occur only in the child's home; and

(ii) There is no contact between the child and disqualified person during child care hours.

(2) The consumer may also choose to select a licensed child care center or family child care home provider, or submit an application for a different in-home/relative provider.

(3) If DSHS becomes aware that the consumer and provider are not meeting the conditions in subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section:

(a) DSHS may terminate payments without notice; and

(b) The consumer may be subject to an overpayment under WAC 170-290-0271.
