BACKGROUND

WAC 388-61A-0200 What is the legal basis for the domestic violence shelter program? Chapter 70.123 RCW authorizes us to establish minimum standards for agencies that receive funding from the department of social and health services (DSHS) to provide domestic violence shelter and supportive services.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0200, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0210 What is the purpose of having minimum standards for domestic violence shelters and supportive services? The purpose of these rules is to have uniform statewide standards for domestic violence shelters and supportive services funded by DSHS. Minimum standards are necessary to provide rules for agencies that contract with us to provide shelter and supportive services for domestic violence victims. These standards address issues such as food, clothing, emergency housing, safety, security, and advocacy.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0210, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

"Advocacy" means that the client is involved with an advocate in individual or group sessions with a primary focus of safety planning, empowerment, and education of the client through reinforcement of the client's autonomy and self-determination. Advocacy also means speaking and acting for change or justice with, or on behalf of, another person or cause. Advocacy is survivor-centered and uses nonvictim blaming methods that include:

- Identifying barriers to, and strategies to enhance, safety, including safety planning.

(10/27/10)

- Clarifying and increasing awareness of the power and control associated with domestic violence and the options one may have to obtain resources while staying safe.

- Supporting independent decision-making based on the unique needs and circumstances of each individual.

"Advocate" means a trained staff person who works in a domestic violence agency and provides advocacy to clients.

"Child care" means the temporary care of a client's child or children by staff of the domestic violence agency at the agency's location or another location where the client is receiving confidential or individual services from the domestic violence agency or is participating in activities sponsored by the domestic violence agency, other than employment, and so long as the client remains on the premises.

"Children/youth activities" means activities other than children/youth advocacy, such as recreational and educational activities, and including child care as defined in this chapter.

"Children/youth advocacy" means an age-appropriate intervention service that strives to assist children/youth to express feelings about their exposure to domestic violence. It is an educational, rather than a therapeutic intervention, and is focused on providing education about domestic violence, safety planning, and developing or enhancing problem-solving skills. Advocacy can be provided on an individual basis and in group settings.

"Client" means a victim of domestic violence who is accessing services at a domestic violence agency. Client can also be referred to as a survivor, service recipient, or resident.

"Cohabitant" means a person who is or was married, in a state registered domestic partnership, or cohabiting with another person in an intimate or dating relationship at the present time or at some time in the past. Any person who has one or more children in common with another person, regardless of whether they have been married, were/are in a domestic partnership with each other, or have lived together at any time, must be treated as a cohabitant. Any person who is or was in a dating relationship with another person at the present or at some time in the past, regardless of whether they lived together at any time, must be treated as a cohabitant.

"Community education" refers to information that is provided in community settings about domestic violence and services related to victims of domestic violence. Community education activities include: Training, presentations, outreach to specific communities or geographic areas, community events, and media events.

"Confidential communication" means all information, oral, written or nonverbal, that is transmitted between a victim of domestic violence and an employee or supervised volunteer of a domestic violence agency in the course of their relationship and in confidence by means which, so far as the victim is aware, does not disclose the information to a third person.

"Confidential information" includes, but is not limited to, any information, advice, notes, reports, statistical data, memoranda, working papers, records or the like, made or given during the relationship between a victim of domestic violence and a domestic violence agency, however maintained. Confidential information includes the name, address, telephone number, social security number, date of birth, nine-digit postal (ZIP) code, physical appearance of, case file or history of, and other information that would personally identify a victim of domestic violence who seeks or has received services from a domestic violence agency.

"Crisis hotline or helpline" means a designated telephone line of the domestic violence agency that operates twenty-four hours a day, three hundred sixty-five days a year. A hotline/helpline provides crisis intervention, safety planning, information, and referral services.

"Crisis intervention" means services provided to an individual in crisis to stabilize an individual's emotions, clarify issues, and provide support and assistance to help explore options for resolution of the individual's immediate crisis and needs.

"Department" means the department of social and health services (DSHS).

"Domestic violence" is a pattern of assaultive and coercive behaviors that an adult or adolescent uses to maintain power and control over their intimate partner. Abusive tactics may include, but are not limited to the following: Physical abuse, sexual abuse, intimidating tactics, physical and/or psychological isolation of the victim, repeated attacks against the victim's competence, alternating use of indulgences, control of family funds and resources, stalking, and the use of children and systems to control the victim. The abuser's use of physical force against persons or property or the use of conduct that establishes credible threat of physical harm (i.e. terrorizing tactics) combined with other controlling tactics are key elements of domestic violence. The effect of the overall pattern of assaultive and coercive behavior is to increase the abuser's power and control in the relationship. It includes, but is not limited to, the categorization of offenses defined in RCW 10.99.020(3) when committed by one cohabitant against another.

"Domestic violence agency" means an agency that provides shelter and advocacy for domestic violence clients in a safe and supportive environment.

"Intimate partner violence" focuses on the most common form of domestic violence, which is between adult or adolescent intimate partners or cohabitants, rather than on violence between nonintimate adult or adolescent household members.

"Legal advocacy" means personal support and assistance with victims of domestic violence to ensure their interests are represented and their rights upheld within the civil and criminal justice systems, including administrative hearings. It includes educating and assisting victims in navigating the justice systems; assisting victims in evaluating advantages and disadvantages of participating in the legal processes; facilitating victims' access and participation in the legal systems; and promoting victims' choices and rights to individuals within the legal systems.

"Lodging unit" means one or more rooms used for a victim of domestic violence including rooms used for sleeping or sitting.

"Marginalized populations" includes, but is not limited to, populations that have been historically underserved and oppressed in society because of ethnicity, race, culture or language diversity, age, sexual orientation, or disability.

"Personally identifying information" includes, but is not limited to, first and last name, home or other physical address, telephone number, Social Security number, date of birth, nine-digit postal (ZIP) code, physical appearance of, case file or history of, and other information that would personally identify a victim of domestic violence who seeks or has received services from a domestic violence agency, or such other information which, taken individually or together with other identifying information, could identify a particular individual.

"Program" means the DSHS domestic violence program.

"Resident" means a client of the domestic violence agency who is residing in a shelter as defined in this chapter.

"Safe home" means a shelter that has two or fewer lodging units and has a written working agreement with a domestic violence agency.

"Safety plan" is a process of thinking through with the victim how to increase safety for both the victim of domestic violence and any dependent children of the victim. Safety planning addresses both immediate and long term risks, barriers, or concerns regarding the victim and any dependent children. It is based on knowledge about the specific pattern of the domestic violence perpetrator's tactics and the protective factors of the victim and any dependent children. Safety planning can be done formally, informally, in writing or orally, or in any other conversational process between the victim and advocate.

"Secretary" means the DSHS secretary or the secretary's designee.

"Shelter" means a safe home or shelter home that provides temporary refuge and food and clothing offered on a twenty-four hour, seven-day-per-week basis to victims of domestic violence and their dependent children. Domestic violence agencies may use hotels and motels for victims who need safe shelter, but the domestic violence agency must also have a shelter home and/or safe home(s) that meet the requirements of this chapter.

"Shelter home" means a shelter that has three or more lodging units and is either a component of, or has a written working agreement with, a domestic violence agency.

"Staff" means persons who are paid or who volunteer to provide services to clients and are a part of a domestic violence agency.

"Support group" means interactive group sessions of two or more victims of domestic violence that is facilitated by trained staff on a regular basis. Participants share experiences, offer mutual support, and receive information and education around a specific topic of common interest. Support groups validate the experiences of victims, explore options, build on strengths, and respect participants' rights to make their own decisions. A shelter or house meeting where, for example, chores are discussed, and there is no advocacy provided, is not a support group.

"Victim" means a cohabitant who has been subjected to domestic violence.

"We, us and our" refers to the department of social and health services and its employees.

"You, I and your" refers to the domestic violence agency.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0220, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0230 What service model must be used to provide the services required by these rules? Shelters and supportive services for victims of domestic violence are essential to provide protection to victims from further abuse and physical harm. Research demonstrates that access to supportive services that increase a survivor's knowledge of safety planning and awareness of community resources leads to increased safety and well being over time. Consequently, the model for providing services must incorporate the following practices:

(1) Services provided to victims must include access to safety, advocacy, information about options, and referrals to helping resources.

(2) Services that blame the victim for the abuse and do not hold the abuser accountable for the violence, are ineffective and will likely result in further harm to the victim, up to and including death. Therefore, minimum standards for the services and practices governed by these rules must use an empowerment model that:

(a) Promotes safety for all victims of intimate partner violence and their dependent children.

(b) Are survivor-centered and treat victims with dignity and respect.

(c) Builds on the strengths and resources of individuals and families, respecting their autonomy and self-determination.

(d) Supports the relationship between victims and their dependent children.

(e) Offers options and support for autonomous decision-making that is based on the needs and circumstances of each victim and their family.

(f) Assists individuals and families in accessing protection and services that are respectful and inclusive of cultural and community characteristics.

(g) Ensures agency accountability by involving victims in evaluating the services they receive from the domestic violence agency.

(h) Supports and engages in collaboration with other community agencies and systems for the purpose of developing a comprehensive response system for victims and their dependent children.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0230, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0240 Is DSHS required to provide funding to any domestic violence agency that requests funding? (1) We are not obligated to disburse funds to all domestic violence agencies that comply with the minimum standards set forth in this chapter. The goal of this program is to provide funding and support for the statewide development, stability, and expansion of emergency shelter and supportive services for victims of domestic violence. Funding for this program is intended to be used to develop and maintain domestic violence agencies statewide that are:

(a) Focused on victim advocacy, safety, empowerment, maintaining confidentiality, and safety planning.

(b) Inclusive and responsive to the ethnic, cultural, racial and socioeconomic diversity of the state.

(c) Flexible and designed to meet the needs of domestic violence victims at the local level.

(10/27/10)

(2) In support of the program goal, if an agency applies to receive funding we will consider such things as:

(a) Geographic location.

(b) Population ratios.

(c) Population need for services.

(d) An agency's experience in providing domestic violence services and its ability to provide services that comply with these minimum standards.

(e) The availability of other domestic violence agencies in a community and the level of collaboration between and among existing agencies.

(f) The amount of funding we have available to maintain stability and support for existing domestic violence agencies funded by DSHS.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0240, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0250 What are the requirements for domestic violence agencies? In order for us to contract with an agency for domestic violence services, the agency must provide emergency shelter and supportive services to victims of domestic violence. The agency must comply with the:

(1) Supportive service and administrative standards for domestic violence agencies; and

(2) General facility standards for shelter homes and safe homes; and

(3) Additional standards for shelter homes; or

(4) Additional standards for safe homes.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0250, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

(5) You may use an answering machine, voice mail, or similar recording device as a back-up means of responding to calls to your agency's crisis hotline/helpline. However, these devices cannot be used as your agency's primary method of answering crisis hotline/helpline calls. Messages left on your agency's answering machine, voice mail, or similar recording device must be returned within the time frame described in subsection (2)(d) of this section.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0280, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0300 What information must be in a client's file? (1) You must have a written file for clients who are served by your domestic violence agency. Client files must:

(a) Include an intake that clearly documents each client's eligibility for domestic violence services.

(b) Be brief in documenting the services provided to the client.

(c) Document only sufficient information to identify the service provided, and must not include any references to service recipient feelings, emotional or psychological assessments, diagnoses, or similar subjective observations or judgments. (ii) If personally identifying information is or will be disclosed, the domestic violence agency must take steps necessary to protect the privacy and safety of the persons affected by the disclosure of information.

(2) Any release of information subject to any of the exceptions set forth above must be limited to the minimum necessary to meet the requirement of the exception, and such release does not void the client's right to confidentiality and privilege on any other confidential communication between the client and the domestic violence agency.

(3) In the case of an unemancipated minor, the minor and the parent or guardian must provide the written consent. Consent for release may not be given by a parent who has abused the minor or the minor's other parent. In the case of a disabled adult who has been appointed a guardian, the guardian must consent to release unless the guardian is the abuser of the disabled adult.

(4) To comply with federal, state, tribal, or territorial reporting, evaluation, or data collection requirements, a domestic violence agency may disclose aggregated nonpersonally identifying data about services provided to their clients and nonpersonally identifying demographic information.

(5) A copy of the disclosed information must be provided to the client, if requested by the client.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0320, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0330, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0340 What information must be provided to clients about their right to confidentiality? (1) You must provide each client with a written "notice of rights" at the time of initial and any subsequent intake into the domestic violence agency. At a minimum, the notice of rights must inform clients of the following:

- (a) The client's right to privacy and confidentiality of the information shared with the domestic violence agency.
 - (b) Exceptions to confidentiality as described in this chapter.
 - (c) That if the client signs a written waiver of confidentiality that allows their information to be shared with others, the client does not give up their right to have that information protected under other statutes, rules or laws.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0340, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0350 What type of training is required for staff of the domestic violence agency? Initial and continuing education training of domestic violence agency staff is critically important. Advocates and advocate supervisors must be able to demonstrate an understanding of the nature and scope of domestic violence as defined by this chapter, as well as the historical and societal attitudes in which domestic violence is rooted. Training must be current and relevant to the provision of empowerment-based advocacy. In furtherance of these goals, domestic violence agency staff must meet the following minimum training requirements.

[Ch. 388-61A WAC—p. 8]

Initial training for staff providing supportive services and staff supervisors

Training for staff not providing supportive services

(4) Domestic violence agency staff who do not provide supportive services to clients or their dependent children are not required to obtain initial and continuing education training as described in this section. Examples of staff that are included in this category are shelter housekeeping staff, individuals providing child care assistance as defined in this chapter, and bookkeeping and accounting staff. It is recommended, however, that staff who may come into contact with clients of the domestic violence agency and their dependent children, but who do not provide supportive services, receive training on the following:

- (a) Confidentiality.
- (b) Relevant policies and procedures of the domestic violence agency.
- (c) Mandated reporting of child abuse/neglect as required by chapter 26.44 RCW, Abuse of children.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0350, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0360 How should training be documented? Initial and continuing education training received by staff and supervisors of staff providing supportive services must be recorded in a training log. At a minimum the log must include:

- (1) Date(s) of training.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0360, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0370 Must supervisors of domestic violence agency staff have specific experience and training? Supervisors of staff providing supportive services to domestic violence clients must have the following minimum experience and training requirements prior to being hired as a supervisor.

- (1) At least two years of experience providing advocacy to victims of domestic violence within a domestic violence agency.
- (2) A minimum of fifty hours of training on domestic violence issues and advocacy within three years prior to being hired as a supervisor.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 10-22-040, § 388-61A-0370, filed 10/27/10, effective 11/27/10.]

WAC 388-61A-0380 What written policies or procedures do you need to have? The domestic violence agency must have written policies or procedures that cover the following issues:

- (2) Confidentiality and protection of client records and communication.
- (3) Nondiscrimination relating to staff, clients, and provision of services.
