

WAC 357-19-360 For what reasons may a general government employer make nonpermanent appointments? A general government employer may fill a position with a nonpermanent appointment when any of the following conditions exist:

- (1) A permanent employee is absent from the position;
- (2) The agency is recruiting to fill a vacant position with a permanent appointment;
- (3) The agency needs to address a short-term immediate workload peak or other short-term needs;
- (4) The agency is not filling a position with a permanent appointment due to the impending or actual layoff of a permanent employee(s); or
- (5) The nature of the work is sporadic and does not fit a particular pattern.
