

WAC 132R-150-060 Gifts. The library welcomes the donations of books and other library materials as well as money to be used for the library. Valuation of gifts for tax purposes will be based upon information available in the library and assessment of value incurs no liability of proof by the library. Gifts become library property when accepted and received, and their disposition is a library matter. The college through the board of trustees or their designee reserves the right to reject, refuse to accept, or return to the donor any gift made available to the Big Bend Community College library.
