

WAC 132T-90-110 Right of students to register objections. Any student who objects to the accuracy or truthfulness of any information contained in any Walla Walla Community College education records or portions thereof that is related to him may submit to the college's public records officer(s) his written views regarding the same, which written objection shall then be included in such education records provided, however, no student has any right to post his objections to academic grades and have the same appear on his academic transcript.

[Order 75-5, § 132T-90-110, filed 5/20/75.]