

WAC 246-341-0315 Agency licensure and certification—Renewals.

A department issued license and certification of behavioral health services expires twelve months from its effective date. To renew a license or certification, an agency must submit a renewal request signed by the agency's designated official.

(1) The original renewal request must:

(a) Be received by the department before the expiration date of the agency's current license; and

(b) Include payment of the specific renewal fee (see WAC 246-341-0365).

(2) The department may conduct an on-site review as part of the renewal process (see WAC 246-341-0320).
