

WAC 296-14-4128 When may the department impute wages in cases where willful misrepresentation has been determined? The department may impute wages when:

- The worker is self-employed; or
- Appropriate payroll records are not available; or
- The employer is paying the worker in cash or material without maintaining appropriate payroll records; or
- There is no employer but the worker has engaged in a repeated pattern of work-type activities or has willfully misrepresented his or her physical restrictions.
