

WAC 392-190-082 Informing citizens about complaint procedures.

The superintendent of public instruction must inform parents and other interested individuals about the complaint procedures in this chapter. Specific actions to be taken by the superintendent of public instruction include:

(1) Disseminating copies of the state's procedures to parents, advocacy agencies, professional organizations, and other appropriate entities; and

(2) Conducting in-service training sessions on the complaint process through educational service districts or in statewide conferences.
