

WAC 131-12-060 Student involvement in the promulgation, amendment and revocation of rules. Each community college district shall involve students in the promulgation, amendment and revocation of rules defining and establishing student rights and responsibilities. The minimum involvement which shall be afforded students, except in emergencies, shall consist of a reasonable opportunity to review and express opinions regarding the proposed exercise of the community college's rule-making authority.

[Order 5, § 131-12-060, filed 12/12/69.]