

WAC 110-148-1410 What information is confidential and what information can I share about a child or a child's family? (1) Information about a child or the child's family is confidential and must only be shared with people directly involved in caring for a child on a need to know basis, or involved in the case plan for a child. You may discuss information about the child, the child's family and the case plan only with:

- (a) Our representatives, including DCYF's LD and CW staff;
 - (b) Department of health, department of social and health services, office of the state fire marshal and the office of the family and children's ombuds;
 - (c) A CPA team assigned to the child;
 - (d) A child's tribal social services worker;
 - (e) Treatment and service providers identified in the child's case plan or with permission of the child's DCYF caseworker; and
 - (f) The child's guardian ad litem, court-appointed special advocate and attorney.
- (2) You may check with your child's DCYF caseworker for guidance about sharing information with the child's parent or guardian, teacher, counselor, doctor and others involved in the child's case plan.
- (3) Child placing agencies and the department must share information about the child and child's family related to the case plan with you so that you can meet the child's needs.
