

WAC 208-620-284 What are my rights if the director denies my application for a license? You have the right to request an administrative hearing pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW. To request a hearing, you must notify the department within twenty days from the date of the director's notice to you that your license application has been denied. See WAC 208-620-615.
