

WAC 257-10-100 What is the difference between an individual provider and a prospective individual provider? An individual provider is someone who has signed a DSHS contract. A prospective individual provider is someone who is seeking employment with a consumer/employer and who has not yet signed a DSHS contract.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.280(3) and 74.39A.250 (1)(a)-(h). WSR 05-14-113, § 257-10-100, filed 7/1/05, effective 8/1/05.]