

WAC 110-145-2070 What recordkeeping requirements exist for medically fragile children? In addition to meeting standard requirements for keeping records per WAC 110-145-1520 and 110-145-1525, you must also keep the following information for medically fragile children that have been in placement for more than 30 days in your facility:

(1) Report of a physical examination and diagnosis by a physician and information about the child's daily care including treatment plans, medications, observations, medical examinations, physicians' orders, proper treatment for allergic reactions, consent authorizations, releases, diagnostic reports, and revisions of assessments;

(2) Upon discharge, a summary including diagnoses, treatments, and prognosis by the person responsible for providing care, and any instructions and referrals for continuity of care; and

(3) Evidence of meeting criteria for eligibility for services from the developmental disabilities administration, if appropriate.
