

WAC 132I-140-140 Supervision during activity. (1) Signatories of the rental agreement as well as adult organization leaders are responsible for group conduct and are expected to remain with their group during all activities at college facilities. The trustees reserve the right to require a staff member to represent the college at any activity on college facilities. Such service shall be paid at the current rate, by the individual or group requesting use of the facility, and does not relieve the individual or group from safeguarding the college's property.

(2) The public safety staff or some other authority of the college will open and lock all rented facilities. Keys to buildings or facilities will not be issued or loaned on any occasion to any individual or group not affiliated with the college.
