

WAC 292-100-080 Investigation procedures—Subpoenas. (1) During the course of an investigation, the board, or the executive director may issue subpoenas to persons to appear and give testimony, and may require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the investigation. The subpoena must:

(a) Specifically describe the information which is sought, and
(b) Require the production of information at a reasonable place and time, but no later than 10 days from the date it is served, and
(c) Notify the person that if the information is not produced, the board will apply to the superior court for an appropriate order or other remedy.

(2) The subpoena may be personally delivered or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested.
