

WAC 388-14A-2020 Can the division of child support deny my application for support enforcement services? (1) The division of child support (DCS) may deny an application which is incomplete, contains unclear or inconsistent statements, is not supported by necessary documents, or requests services DCS cannot or does not provide.

(2) DCS may deny an application from a nonresident as provided in WAC 388-14A-2015(2).

(3) When DCS denies an application, DCS sends the applicant a written notice of denial by regular mail. The notice advises the applicant:

(a) Of the reasons for the denial; and

(b) That the applicant may request an administrative hearing to contest the denial.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090. WSR 01-03-089, § 388-14A-2020, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01.]