

WAC 388-14A-2070 Does the division of child support provide support enforcement services if the CSO determines I have "good cause level B"? If the community services office (CSO) grants you good cause level B, the division of child support provides support enforcement services without requiring the custodial parent (CP) to provide information or cooperate with DCS in any way.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090. WSR 01-03-089, § 388-14A-2070, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01.]