- WAC 246-237-031 Protection of information. (1) Each licensee who obtains background information on an individual under this chapter shall establish and maintain a system of files and written procedures for protection of the record and the personal information from unauthorized disclosure.
- (2) The licensee may not disclose the record or personal information collected and maintained to persons other than the subject individual, their representative, or to those who have a need to have access to the information in performing assigned duties in the process of granting or denying unescorted access to Category 1 or Category 2 quantities of radioactive material, safeguards information, or safeguards information-modified handling. No individual authorized to have access to the information may disseminate the information to any other individual who does not have a need to know.
- (3) The personal information obtained on an individual from a background investigation may be provided to another licensee:
- (a) Upon the individual's written request to the licensee holding the data to disseminate the information contained in their file; and
- (b) The recipient licensee verifies information such as name, date of birth, Social Security number, gender, and other applicable physical characteristics.
- (4) The licensee shall make background investigation records obtained under this chapter available for examination by an authorized representative of the department to determine compliance with the applicable rules and laws.
- (5) The licensee shall retain all fingerprint and criminal history records (including data indicating no record) received from the FBI, or a copy of these records if the individual's file has been transferred, on an individual for three years from the date the individual no longer requires unescorted access to Category 1 or Category 2 quantities of radioactive material.
