WAC 388-825-096 Will I have to pay for the services DDA authorizes for me? (1) If you live in your own home, you do not pay toward the cost of your services except chore services. You must pay toward the cost of chore services as described in WAC 388-106-0625.

(2) If DDA authorizes you to live in a licensed community residential facility you must pay your room and board costs from your earned and unearned income. You may also be responsible for a portion of the cost of your care.

(a) If you are eligible for and receiving SSI or have SSI related eligibility per chapter 182-512 WAC, you are not required to pay toward the cost of your care if you are living at home or in a community setting.

(b) If you are enrolled in a DDA HCBS waiver you must pay toward the cost of your services as described in WAC 182-515-1510.

(c) If you are not enrolled in a DDA HCBS waiver you must pay toward the cost of your services as described in WAC 388-106-0225.

(3) If you live in a medical institution you must pay toward the cost of your care as described in WAC 182-513-1380. See WAC 182-500-0050 for the definition of a medical institution.
