WAC 388-842-0001 What is the residential habilitation for dependent youth program? (1) The residential habilitation for dependent youth (RHDY) program is administered by the developmental disabilities administration (DDA) through a person-centered service plan. The program provides residential habilitation services to a dependent child or youth in a qualified setting outside of the family home that is agreed to by the parent, guardian, or legal representative.

(2) The RHDY program does not include:

(a) Behavioral health services;

(b) Care provided by other paid supports or the client's family; or

(c) Education and related services provided under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 (IDEA), which are the responsibility of state and local education agencies.
