WAC 388-842-0235 What happens if a client's dependency is closed, or the placement is changed to in-home while the client is in the RHDY program? (1) A client is no longer eligible for the RHDY program if the client's dependency status changes and the dependency is closed, or the placement is changed to in-home.

(2) DDA will meet with the parent or legal representative (or client if over 18) and the DCYF caseworker to determine if they wish to continue residential habilitation services or explore other waiver services.

(a) If the client requests services through the out-of-home services (OHS) program, and the client meets eligibility under WAC 388-826-0010, DDA will follow the OHS admission process.

(b) If the client does not pursue services through the OHS program, the client must not remain in the RHDY home or facility more than 15 days after the date of the court-ordered change.

(3) Transportation and moving expenses from the RHDY program are the responsibility of DCYF, the parent, or legal representative.
