If you are interested in commenting on a request listed in this volume of the register, you should notify the Attorney General's Office of your interest by November 23, 2005. This is not the due date by which comments must be received. However, if you do not notify the Attorney General's Office of your interest in commenting on an opinion request by this date, the opinion may be issued before your comments have been received. Box 40100, Olympia, Washington 98504-0100. When you notify the office of your intention to comment, you will be provided with a copy of the opinion request in which you are interested; information about the Attorney General's Opinion process; information on how to submit your comments; and a due date by which your comments must be received to ensure that they are fully considered.

If the act does require both the team and any affiliate of the team to make such a financial disclosure, does the act allow either entity to avoid disclosure, or place the entire disclosure responsibility upon the other, by private agreement between the two? 4. If the act does require one of them to make such a financial disclosure, does this act, or any other act, charge any state officer or any public agency with the duty or authority to enforce this financial disclosure requirement?
