AMD

WAC 132H-120-100 FREEDOM OF INDIVIDUAL PRIVACY. (1) The rights of students to be secure in their persons, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures is guaranteed.

(2) State Law relative to public institutions restricts the use or possession of intoxicants on campus or at college functions except at designated events, for students, alumni, staff and the community, where alcohol is permitted when approved by the President of the college and/or the Board of Trustees. The use or possession of unlawful narcotics or drugs, not medically prescribed, on college property or at college functions, is prohibited. Lotteries or any other form of gambling is prohibited by state law in reference to public institutions. The use of tobacco is restricted by law and by regulations of the fire marshal to designated smoking areas. Destruction of property is also prohibited by state law in reference to public institutions.

(3) Freedom of responsible expression in student publications and radio broadcasting.

(a) STUDENT PUBLICATIONS. Bellevue Community College recognizes that student publications are a valuable aid in establishing and maintaining an atmosphere of free and responsible discussion and of intellectual exploration on the campus. The college does, therefore, subscribe to The Canons of Journalism, as written by the American Society of Newspapers Editors, The Canons of Journalism, in George L. Bird, et. al., The Press and Society (New York: Prentice-Hall, Inc., 1951) pp. 108-110.

Bellevue Community College, as the publisher of student publications, must bear the legal responsibility for the contents of the publications. The student publication policy must protect the student's freedom to deal with any ideas and to express any opinions without fear of their censorship. Editors and managers of student publications are protected from arbitrary suspension and removal. Only for proper and stated causes should editors and managers be subject to removal and then by orderly and prescribed procedures. Student editors and managers have corollary responsibilities to be governed by The Canons of Journalism.

(b) RADIO BROADCASTING. Bellevue Community College recognizes that student participation in radio broadcasting is a valuable aid in establishing and maintaining an atmosphere of free and responsible discussion and of intellectual exploration on the campus. The college does, therefore, expect radio station KBCS to conform to Federal Communications Commissions regulations. A KBCS Broadcast Advisory Board has been established to serve as a sounding board for KBCS operational policies and to advise the station manager of any concerns with the implementation of such policies.

All other requests shall be filed with the Office of the President. The request shall be approved or denied at least three (3) calendar days prior to the proposed event. The application for utilization of alcoholic beverages must be completed by an authorized representative who accepts responsibility for compliance with college and other governmental rules and regulations, where applicable, and agrees to be present at the function. The Associate Dean for Student Programs and Activities, or designee, shall be available at all student functions involving alcoholic beverages and is empowered to make decisions that might arise covering college policies or procedures.

(iii) Upon approval for the use of alcoholic beverages at Bellevue Community College, it shall be the responsibility of the sponsor to obtain all necessary licenses from the Washington State Liquor Control Board and to display such licenses at the time of the event.

(iv) Banquet events (sit-down dinners) are recognized as different in nature from program events.
