NEW WAC 114-12-060 SYMPOSIUMS - BOARD APPROVAL. Licensees are required to attend annually one or more chiropractic symposiums which are recognized and approved by the Washington state board of chiropractic examiners.

(1) Symposiums approved, by the board, for licensees practicing or residing within the state of Washington are those sponsored or conducted by the Washington Chiropractor's Association, The Chiropractic Society of Washington, The American Chiropractic Association, or The International Chiropractic Association, or an approved Chiropractic College.

(2) Symposiums approved, by the board, for licensees practicing and residing outside the state are those sponsored or conducted by an approved chiropractic college or a recognized chiropractic organization which is representative of the chiropractors of a state, a territory, a province, or a country.

(3) Anyone desiring the board to approve a symposium which is not sponsored or conducted by those organizations, as shown in sub-paragraph (1) or (2) above, may request the board to do so. The request shall be in writing and presented to the secretary of the board. The request may be accompanied by evidence as to the worthiness of the symposium for approval and shall be so accompanied when requested by the board. Such evidence to include notarized, sworn statements. The board shall consider such a request within a reasonable time, and shall notify the person making the request. The director of motor vehicles shall be notified by August 31st of each year of approved symposiums.

(4) To be eligible for approval, a symposium shall:

(a) Be sponsored by an approved chiropractic college or a recognized chiropractic organization which is representative of the chiropractors of a state, a territory, a province, or a country;

(b) Extend over a period of at least two days, and offer an education program consisting of at least eight hours;

(c) Include instruction by at least two outstanding chiropractic educators; and

(d) Devote itself to lectures or demonstrations concerning matters which are recognized in the state of Washington chiropractic licensing laws.

NEW WAC 114-12-100 EXAMINATIONS. (1) Any applicant presenting evidence of having successfully completed Part I of the examination conducted by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners, or presenting a basic science certificate, or successfully completing an examination conducted by the Board of Chiropractic Examiners, will be considered to have satisfied the state requirement for basic sciences examination and such shall be waived.

(2) Any applicant presenting evidence of having successfully completed Part II of the examination conducted by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners will be considered as having met the examination requirements as outlined in RCW 18.25.030, except that each such applicant, shall be required to appear before the Washington State Board of Chiropractic Examiners to be examined in the subjects of: Principles of Chiropractic; X-ray; and Adjustive Technique.
