JOINT

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES REVIEW COMMITTEE

June 6, 1986

Theresa Anna Aragon, Director
Department of Licensing
Highways-Licenses Building, PB-01
Olympia, WA 98504

Dear Ms. Aragon:

At its meeting on May 20, 1986, the Joint Administrative Rules Review Committee, by a majority vote upon formal review, determined that your recently adopted rule relating to chiropractic continuing education (WAC 11412-155 and WAC 11412-165; WSR 86-06-043) fails to meet the legislative intent of RCW 18.25.070.

RCW 18.25.070 provides that the Board of Chiropractic Examiners shall "recognize and approve" chiropractic symposiums which are submitted to the Board by chiropractors in satisfaction of their continuing education requirements for license renewal. By rule, the Board has provided blanket approval of all symposia falling within certain subject matter areas, subject to a random audit.

Under RCW 34.04.230, the Board of Chiropractic Examiners must file a notice of hearing on the rule within 30 days of its receipt of this notice. The Board must fully consider all written and oral submissions and notify the Joint Administrative Rules Review Committee of its action on the rule within seven days of the hearing. Further Committee action will be required if the Board fails to hold the required hearing and refuses to modify, amend, or repeal the rule.
