5 On page 2, line 15, after "election." strike all material through 6 "(3)" on line 21, and insert the following:

7 "(3) If the number of persons whose names are on the official 8 nomination list for a political party is not sufficient to satisfy the 9 requirements of subsection (4) of this section as it applies to that 10 political party or is otherwise insufficient to provide the number of 11 precinct election officials required from that political party, the 12 auditor shall notify the chair of the party's county central committee 13 regarding the deficiency. The chair may, within five business days of 14 being notified by the auditor, add to the party's nomination list the 15 names of additional persons belonging to that political party who are 16 qualified to serve on the election boards. To the extent that, 17 following this procedure, the number of persons whose names appear on 18 the official nomination lists of the political parties is insufficient 19 to provide the number of election inspectors and judges required for a 20 primary or election, the auditor may appoint a properly trained person 21 whose name does not appear on such a list as an inspector or judge of 22 election for a precinct.
