

HOUSE BILL REPORT

SHJR 4216

*As Passed House
February 3, 1992*

Brief Description: Amending the Constitution to permit municipalities and state agencies to employ chaplains.

Sponsor(s): Representatives Franklin, Edmondson, Haugen, Ferguson, Valle, Wood and Day.

Brief History:

Reported by House Committee on:
Local Government, March 1, 1991, DPS;
Passed House, March 19, 1991, 95-1;
Passed House, February 3, 1992, 95-1.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Majority Report: That Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 4216 be substituted therefor, and the substitute resolution do pass. Signed by 14 members: Representatives Haugen, Chair; Cooper, Vice Chair; Ferguson, Ranking Minority Member; Mitchell, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Bray; Edmondson; Franklin; Horn; Nealey; Nelson; Rayburn; Roland; Wynne; and Zellinsky.

Staff: Steve Lundin (786-7127).

Background: The state constitution prohibits the use of public money or property to be used for any religious worship, exercise or instruction, or the support of any religious establishment. However, these prohibitions do not forbid the Legislature from providing for the State to employ a chaplain for state custodial, correctional, and mental institutions.

Summary of Bill: The Legislature is authorized to permit counties and public hospital districts to employ chaplains at their hospitals, health facilities, and hospices.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: The amendment becomes effective immediately upon certification of the election results of the November 1991 general election, if the voters approve the amendment.

Testimony For: The auditor indicates that the Constitution precludes hospital districts from employing chaplains. Chaplains can play an essential role in both the healing process and dying.

Testimony Against: None.

Witnesses: (pro) Greg Vigdor, Washington State Hospital Association; and (pro, if amended) Jerry Sheehan, American Civil Liberties Union.
